Note to the student:

Welcome to Spanish in the Classroom for Elementary School Teachers and Staff.

This workbook is designed to increase communication with Spanish speaking students and their parents or guardians. The material provided is derived from real situations with suggestions from teachers and school staff making it a highly practical and useful resource.

There are several approaches to using this book. The section consisting of phrases and vocabulary can be used quickly to get a specific task done. For a deeper understanding, the grammar section provides an introduction to some essential language concepts. Finally, the practice exercises and puzzles will promote memorization and retention. Please note that the material contained within is not a substitute for Spanish studies; in fact, we recommend taking a basic Spanish language course first. After all, you may be able to express a question, but how will you understand the response? Students already involved in Spanish language studies will find this book to be an excellent tool for expanding their vocabularies, reviewing basic grammar, and broadening their acquaintance with idiomatic expressions.

We think you'll find Spanish in the Classroom for Elementary School Teachers and Staff a practical but enjoyable way to assist communication in the schools. Best wishes to you all!

LESSON 6

THE CHILD'S HEALTH

Here are sentences that are useful for telling parents about student health issues.

Please come pick up your child.
Por favor venga a buscar a su hijo.

Your child is sick.
Su hijo está enfermo.

Your child is complaining of a headache.
Su hijo dice que tiene dolor de cabeza.

Your child is hurt and needs to go to the doctor.
Su hijo está herido y necesita ir al médico.

Your child has head lice and must be picked up from school.
Su hijo tiene piojo y alguien tiene que venir a buscarlo a la escuela.

Your child is ill and needs to go home.
Su hijo está enfermo y necesita regresar a casa.

Let's practice these sentences by repeating them after the instructor. Each sentence will be stated twice in Spanish. Listen carefully, and then repeat.

Por favor venga a buscar a su hijo.
Su hijo está enfermo.
Su hijo dice que tiene dolor de cabeza.
Su hijo está herido y necesita ir al médico.
Su hijo tiene piojo y alguien tiene que venir a buscarlo a la escuela.
Su hijo está enfermo y necesita regresar a casa.

Now let's translate the English sentences into Spanish. Listen carefully, and then respond. After a brief pause, the answer will be stated.

Please come pick up your child.
Por favor venga a buscar a su hijo.

Your child is sick.
Su hijo está enfermo.

Your child is complaining of a headache.
Su hijo dice que tiene dolor de cabeza.
